George William Curtis. The following circular has been sent to government employes:

CIVIL-SERVICE REFORM ASSOCIATION, 4 PINE STREET, NEW YORK, June 17, 1882. DEAR Sin: We understand that a circular has recenlly been sent to you from the Republican Congressional Committee, asking for contributions toward defraying the expenses of that committee st the coming election.

We desire to inform you that, in the opinion of counsel, as the members of the committee are officers of the United States government, you, as an office-holder, are Hable, under section 6 of chapter 287 of the United States Statutes, 1876 (supplement to Revised Statutes, page 245), to punishment by fine or removal from office, or both, in case you subscribe as requested. The National Civil-Service Reform League proposes to bring the matter to the attention of the Attorney-General and other prosecuting officers of the United States, and until their decision is given we should advise you prudently to refrain from complying with the request of the committee. Respectfully.

GEORGE WM. CURTIS, President. EVERETT P. WHEELER, Ch'n Ex. Com, WILLIAM POTTS, Secretary. For the N. Y. Civil-Service Reform Association.

We desire to inform the recipients of the above circular that members of Congress and United States Senators are not officers of the United States government," and that therefore there is no statute which in the slightest manner justifies the mean and meddlesome conduct of Mr. George William Curtis and his platform statuary. This question was decided years ago when an attempt was made to impeach Blount, a United States Senator. He claimed that as only officers of the United States were subject to impeachment, and as a Senator was not such an officer he could not be proceeded against by impeachment. This position was maintained by the Senate, and has ever since been the undisputed law on the subject. If the Attorney-General were to advise to the contrary of this and the matter should go before the courts the committee might save all trouble by having collections solicited and received by a treasurer not holding any Federal office.

But why this heated zeal of Mr. Curtis? What does he want? On Tuesday he postured before the Phi Beta Kappa Soclety of Brown University at Providence lators will appear in to-morrow's REPUB-LICAN through an open letter to Wade Hampton from Judge T. J. Mr. Reagan announced that he would vote against the bill as tending to perpetuate the present high protective tariff and the public debt.

Mr. Hach advocated a proposed amendment allowing farmers and planters to sell tobacco of their own production without the payment of a special license.

Mr. Alken stated his opposition to every letter in the bill, and argued that instead of bringing in a little bill like the pending one the Committee on Ways and Means should have pressed a measure revising the tariff.

Of these Mr. Curtis shows himself to be one when, The scholar appealing to experience is proudly told to close his books, for what has America to do with experience? As if books were not the everburning lamps of accumulated wisdom. When Voltaire was insulted by the London mob he turned at his door and complimented them upon the nobleness of their national character, their glorious constitution, and their love of liberty. The London mob did not feel the sarcasm. But when I hear that America may score experience because she is a law to herself I remember that a few years ago a foreign observer came to the city of Washington and said: "I did not fully comprehend your greatness until I saw your Congress. Then I felt that if you could stand that you could stand anything, and I understood the saying that God takes care of children, drunken men, and the United States."

Unmanly ravings like these may appear very edifying to some whose minds have been weakened by long indulgence in the drugs administered by political quacks, but for our own poor part we consider them proofs of bad citizenship and a very low type of manhood. Whether The scholar appealing to experience is proudly old to close his books, for what has America to do very low type of manhood. Whether

A Specimen Fraud.

In the examination of the evidence in the conested election case of Lee vs. Bichardson, first tested election case of Lee vs. Richardson, first South Carolina district, Hon. A. H. Psittbone has made some discoveries as novel as they are monstrous. The evidence shows that the Democrats actually stuffed the ballot-box at Concord precine, Sumpter County, notwithstanding the fact that not a single Republican had voted there, and none but Democratic tickets had been voted at that poll. The evidence shows that the Republicans all left the Concord poll, having become convined that Democratic funds were contemplated. When this Democratic box was opened there were found an excess of furty-one lickets therein. There is but one conclusion to be drawn from this circumstance, and that is that the love of fraud was so dominant in the Bourbons who managed the election at the Concord precluct, that they could not resist the tempistion of stuffing even a box filled with none but Democratic ballots. Mr. Petithone is an attute lawyer, and has encountered criminals or all classes and characteristics, but he is free to confess that for unblushing mendacticy and unadulerated villancy, the managers of that election precinct have carned the "cake." Mr. Petithone stated to a REPUBLICAN reporter that this case was almost analogous to that of a Western needler, who, after taking two drinks of whick made of "shocleather, Indicus coedus, and the davil," went out and stole his own pack. He hopes, however, that the Bennic time in this case will not be adopted by Mr. Richardson's sympathizing friends in the North.
